Department of Nursing, College of Medicine

May 6th, 2020

To Whom It May Concern,

National Cheng Kung University (NCKU) will open recruitment for international students for 2021-2022 academic year in January, 2021 and we are looking for talented students who can meet the academic demands of Master/Doctoral Program in Nursing.

If potential candidates in your institutions or those who are interested in our program, please refer to <https://admissions.oia.ncku.edu.tw/doc/view/sn/12> and do the online application between January 10 and March 30, 2021. We will review your application and do the online interview during April and May. Admission announcement will be made by National Cheng Kung University on May 20.

We are very pleased to offer a scholarship for candidates who get acceptance from the interview. Once the candidate received the Admission letter and complete the "Admission Confirm" online form, the registration materials will be sent directly to them to complete their enrollment before the class starts.

If you need any further information related to the program, please do not hesitate to contact the program office for advisement (Email: iapnncku@gmail.com). We shall make every effort to be of assistance.

Welcome to share this information with those who might be interested in!

Yours faithfully,

Nai-Ying Ko
